Motor vehicles that were manufactured at least 25 years ago are considered "antique" and qualify for antique license plates. Applicants may choose to provide a plate for use, which must be approved by the DMV, or they may use a DMV antique plate design.

Antique registrations permit the use of the motor vehicle on Saturday, Sunday, and holidays, or for activities such as parades, club events, tours, exhibits, etc. These registrations are on a ten year cycle. You can register an antique vehicle at anytime, and you will only be charged the fees for the remaining number of years on the current cycle. The current registration cycle began on July 2, 2005 and will end on July 1, 2015. The fees below are what you pay to keep your registration current until the cycle ends.
